MLK DAY

"Be maladjusted"

Students and community members come together to remember the visit that Martin Luther King Jr. made to Bethel 50 years ago. Vincent Harding a friend of Dr. King came to speak to the Bethel community.

Many events took place on campus that involved students, faculty, staff, community members, and our guest of honor Vincent Harding who was a friend of Martin Luther King Jr.

Spring Break

Spring Break is a time to relax or to go do volunteer work, as the members of Project 88 did.

Above: Dana Daugharthy, Michael Bowman, Kyle Doesken, Will Peterson, Shawn Sullivan, Aaron Gingerich, Aaron Rudeen, Jean Butts, and Ben Preheim spent their Spring Break working

Student Life

Check out these next few pages to see what Bethel students do when it's time to take a break from hitting the books!

Cold weather and even snow is no deterrant for these Bethel students who enjoyed an exciting game of Ultimate during these adverse weather conditions.

Our mothers always taught us not to draw on ourselves, but these two students seem to disagree! Claire Unruh and Anna Voth model their creations.

Life got to be a little too much for Kevin Leary, so he decided to take a little break from it.

The always delightful annual trip to the local thrift or maybe even your own closet (ssshh) results in the popular.....

Tacky Sweater Party

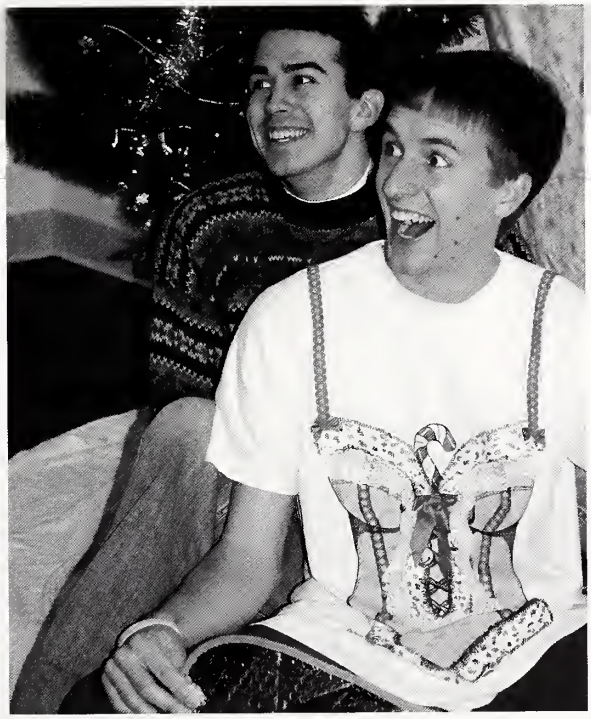
Bottom right: Allison Yoder is...well, being Allison. She looks thrilled to be there, doesn't she?

Allsion Schrag, Audra Miller, and Miriam Weaverdyck rock it. And for good reason, too!



Graham Unruh and Evan Fast bear a shocklingly similiar resemblance to little kids on Christmas Day.

Debate/Forensics
